The U.P. Recalls The WAR

In this 2007 WNMU-TV production, Upper Peninsula people recall World War II, sharing images and stories from the battlefields of Europe, and the home towns we know and love. They take us from the Battle of the Bulge, to Italy with the 10th Mountain Division, to the glider factory in Kingsford, and to the mines of the U.P. iron range. This is the story of people who fought for freedom in the greatest war the world has ever known, both abroad and at home.

Christmas at Luther
Tidings of Comfort and Joy

This program celebrates the joy and traditions of Christmas with the renowned choirs of Luther College in Decorah, Iowa. Holiday music, 500 choristers, a symphony orchestra, thousands in the audience and glowing candlelight capture the wonder and joy of the season as Luther College's internationally acclaimed musicians mark 32 years of sharing the seasonal gift of music with their annual Christmas concert.

Joffrey: Mavericks of American Dance

Uncover the story of the first quintessentially American dance company, the Joffrey Ballet. Founders Robert Joffrey and Gerald Arpino pioneered a new dance philosophy by daringly combining modern and traditional techniques and art with social statement, and integrating pop and rock music scores. Tracing the struggles and triumphs of the company from 1956 to the present, the film features rare archival performance footage

Alone in the Wilderness

To live in a pristine land and roam a wilderness through which few other humans have passed. To build your own log cabin. To give up 40-hour work weeks and chuck it all to live alone in the woods. Thousands have had such dreams, but Richard Proenneke has lived them. This is a simple account his day-to-day explorations and activities in the wilderness of Alaska, and the nature that kept him company.

The Beatles' "Magical Mystery Tour"

The Beatles' 1967 film "Magical Mystery Tour" is a showcase for the Fab Four's idiosyncratic sense of humor and six classic Beatles songs. Watch a documentary that revisits the making of the film then, at 10 pm, enjoy the seldom seen film featuring John, Paul, George and Ringo as themselves joined by a cast of eccentric characters on a surreal coach trip.
