Mark Russell's America

For three decades, humorist Mark Russell shared his insights on politics and society on public television. A master of pointed one-liners and sharp-witted piano parodies, Russell remained an equal-opportunity quipster, lampooning events and newsmakers from all political persuasions. This retrospective pays tribute to his talent and features clips from some of Russell's more than 100 public television specials (1975-2004).

Monday, November 5 at 10 pm

Nature Animal Odd Couples

There are countless stories of the most unlikely cross-species relationships imaginable: a goat guiding a blind horse; a doe who regularly visits her Great Dane surrogate mother; a juvenile gibbon choosing to live with a family of capuchins, and so on. Instincts gone awry? The subject has mystified scientists for years. Now, NATURE investigates why animals form these special bonds.

NOVA Mystery of Easter Island

A remote speck of rock in the middle of the Pacific, Easter Island has mystified the world since the first Europeans arrived in 1722. How and why did the ancient islanders build and move nearly 900 giant statues, or moai, weighing up to 86 tons? Did they use ropes to "walk" the statues upright? The NOVA team sets out to test the theory in this fresh investigation of one of the ancient world's most intriguing enigmas.
