A Dog Named Jessica

Written and Illustrated by: Katie Stephenson

age: 6
Once upon a time, a dog named Jessica was walking down the street. She was looking for a home.
After awhile Jessica found a house that might be right for her.
Jessica went into the house to see if it was right. She found a little grey ball.
She also found a little girl named Erica.
Erica loved the dog. She gave the dog a hug. The dog was happy.
Erica asked her mommy if she could keep the dog. Everyone was happy except the dad.
When Jessica got bigger, the dad was happy because she didn't mess up the house anymore. They lived happily ever after.

The End.
