8:00 p LBJ: American Experience “Part 1”

The President’s PBS presents special encore broadcasts of The Presidents, the Peabody Award-winning series of Biographies from American Experience.

JFK - Monday and Tuesday, August 8-9, 9-11 pm
Forever enshrined in myth by an assassin’s bullet, John F. Kennedy’s presidency has often defied objective appraisal. This portrait offers a fresh assessment of the man, his accomplishments, and his unfulfilled promise.

LBJ - Wednesday, August 10, 8 pm-midnight
An “accidental” president but a master legislator, LBJ put into motion many of the programs that would continue to shape American life throughout the 1960s and 70s.

Nixon - Thursday, August 11, 8-11 pm
Nixon’s legacy includes both ending America’s involvement in Vietnam and the Watergate scandal. This profile explores the fateful combination of strengths and weaknesses that propelled Richard Nixon to the presidency and then brought him down.

Jimmy Carter - Monday, August 15, 9-11 pm
Jimmy Carter’s story is one of the greatest dramas in American politics. Overwhelmingly voted out of office in a humilitating defeat in 1980, over the following decades he became one of the most admired statesmen and humanitarians in America and the world. Jimmy Carter traces his rapid ascent in politics, dramatic fall from grace, and unexpected resurrection.

Reagan - Tuesday and Wednesday, August 16-17, 9-11 pm
The life of the actor, governor, and president who saw America as “a shining city on a hill” is recalled by those who knew him best: wife Nancy Reagan and three of his children. Also interviewed are those in his inner political circle as well as his counterparts on the world stage, former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

George H. W. Bush - Thursday, August 18, 8-11 pm
With unparalleled access to figures in Bush’s private and public life, George H. W. Bush explores the life of a man who became a pivotal player during a critical moment in American and world history. Bush’s personal letters and comments from his closest advisors and prominent critics inform the film, which features interviews with First Lady Barbara Bush, Condoleezza Rice, Colin Powell, James Baker, and more.
