Thanks to social media, today’s teens are able to interact directly with their culture — artists, celebrities, movies, brands and even one another — in ways never before possible. But is that real empowerment? Or do marketers still hold the upper hand?

Frontline examines the evolving and complicated relationship between teens and the companies that are increasingly working to target them.

Honey Badgers

Masters of Mayhem

Known as the “thug of the savannah,” the honey badger is one of the most fearless animals in the world, renowned for its ability to confront grown lions, castrate charging buffalo and shrug off the toxic defenses of bees, scorpions and snakes. Nature follows specialists in South Africa taking on these masters of mayhem in ways that must be seen to be believed.

Independent Lens Spies of Mississippi

The Mississippi State Sovereignty Commission was a secret spy agency formed during the 1950s and 60s to preserve segregation and maintain white supremacy. This film tracks the commission’s hidden role in important chapters of the civil rights movement, including the integration of the University of Mississippi, the trial of Medgar Evers and the KKK murders of three civil rights workers in 1964.

Butch Cassidy & the Sundance Kid
American Experience

Long before Paul Newman and Robert Redford immortalized them on screen, Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid captivated Americans from coast to coast. In the 1890s, their exploits — robbing banks and trains and then seemingly vanishing into thin air — became national news and the basis of rumors and myth. Separating fact from fiction, this program explores the last pair of outlaws to flee on horseback into a setting sun.

Great Cathedral Mystery

The largest masonry dome on earth, the Duomo that crowns Florence’s great cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore is a masterpiece of Renaissance ingenuity and an enduring architectural mystery. To better understand how it was built and how its architect, Filippo Brunelleschi, kept the dome perfectly aligned, a team of U.S. bricklayers using period tools and techniques tries to find out how it was built. Part 2 of 4.

Murder on the Home Front

When young women are found murdered amid the chaos of the London Blitz of World War II, rookie Home Office Pathologist Dr. Lennox Collins (Patrick Kennedy) and his newly recruited assistant Molly Cooper (Tamzin Merchant) clash with the police over just who the main suspect is. Employing groundbreaking forensic techniques, can Lennox and Molly save a seemingly innocent man from the gallows and prove there may be more to these murders than meets the eye?

Ice Warriors - USA Sled Hockey

Sled hockey, also known as “murderball on blades,” is played as aggressively as professional hockey – but the players are strapped into armored sleds and they battle, at eye level, with their bodies, their sticks, their sharp sled blades, and the serrated ice picks used to propel their sleds. It’s a game of force, speed and strategy. This program tracks the US Sled Hockey team as its athletes prepare for the Winter Paralympics.

Secrets of the Vatican

Pope Benedict made history when he announced his resignation, becoming the first pope to step down voluntarily in 600 years. In his wake, he left a bitterly divided Vatican mired in scandals. This special two-hour FRONTLINE goes inside one of the world’s most revered and mysterious institutions to give a first hand account of the final days of Benedict’s papacy and the current battle to set the church on a new path under Francis.

Nature Ireland’s Wild River

Ireland’s longest river is both a barrier and a highway. On its journey south, the Shannon passes through rural landscapes, where on little-known backwaters, Ireland’s wild animals and plants still thrive as almost nowhere else. Wildlife cameraman Colin Stafford-Johnson lived on the river through four seasons, on a quest to film the natural history of the Shannon River as it has never been experienced before.
