It was the year of the Beatles and the Civil Rights Act; of the Gulf of Tonkin and Barry Goldwater’s presidential campaign; the year that cities across the country erupted in violence and Americans tried to make sense of the Kennedy assassination. This film follows the prominent figures of the time and ordinary Americans whose frustrations and ambitions turned the country onto a new and different course.

Salinger

American Masters

This new profile is the first work to get beyond The Catcher in the Rye author’s meticulously built-up wall: his childhood, painstaking work methods, marriages, private world and the secrets he left behind after his death in 2010. Features interviews with J.D. Salinger’s friends, colleagues and members of his inner circle who have never spoken on the record before.

Nature

The Funkiest Monkeys

Crested black macaques are beach bums with punk hairstyles, expressive faces, copper-colored eyes and some very unusual habits, making them some of the most charismatic of all monkeys. 25 years ago, filmmaker Colin Stafford-Johnson travelled to Indonesia and fell in love with these feisty monkeys. Now he returns to find out why their numbers have dropped.

Poisoner’s Handbook
American Experience

In the early 20th century, the average American medicine cabinet was a would-be poisoner’s treasure chest: radioactive radium in health tonics, thallium in depilatory creams, morphine in teething medicine and potassium cyanide in cleaning supplies. Find out how New York City’s first scientifically trained medical examiner turned forensic chemistry into a formidable science.

Chasing Shackleton

This new three-part series follows a modern expedition that re-creates Sir Ernest Shackleton’s 1914 Trans-Antarctic Expedition. Five intrepid explorers, led by renowned adventurer, scientist and author Tim Jarvis, duplicate Shackleton’s epic sea-and-land voyage in a replica of the original explorers’ lifeboat, James Caird, using only the tools and supplies his team used.

Wednesday, January 8 at 10 pm
Chasing Shackleton Follow Tim Jarvis on his mission to uncover what really happened on Shackleton’s journey of survival. Part 1 of 3.

Frontline Secret State of North Korea

Just two years in the job and armed with nuclear weapons, North Korea’s Kim Jong-Un is the world’s youngest dictator, ruling one of the world’s most isolated countries. Like his father and grandfather, he wants to maintain tight control over what North Koreans see of the world — and what the world sees of North Korea. But with unique access, FRONTLINE goes inside the secret state to explore life under its new ruler and to investigate the enigmatic “Morning Star King” as he tries to hold onto power.

NOVA Zeppelin Terror Attack

In the early days of World War I, Germany, determined to bring its British enemies to their knees, launched a new kind of terror campaign: bombing civilians from the sky. The lethal payloads rained down from Zeppelins — enormous airships, some the length of two football fields. With a team of engineers, explosives experts and historians, NOVA investigates the secrets behind these deadly war machines.

Nature Meet the Coywolf

The coywolf, a mixture of western coyote and eastern wolf, is a remarkable new hybrid carnivore that is taking over territories once roamed by wolves and slipping unnoticed into our cities. The story of how it came to be is an extraordinary tale of how quickly adaptation and evolution can occur, especially when humans interfere.

The Real Mary Poppins

Author Pamela Travers, creator of the much-loved character Mary Poppins, led a remarkable but troubled life. Behind the fictional nanny lies a complex tale of a young woman escaping rural Australia in her pursuit to become a writer, reinventing herself and her past along the way. This program tells Travers’ real story and seeks to answer the question so many have asked: Where did Mary Poppins come from?

Hawking

This is the intimate and revealing story of Stephen Hawking’s life. Told for the first time in Hawking’s own words and with unique access to his home and public life, the program traces Hawking’s life journey from boyhood under-achiever to PhD genius, and from a healthy cox on the Oxford rowing team to diagnosis of motor neuron disease, and several close brushes with death. The film also highlights his greatest scientific discoveries and plots his rise to fame and superstardom.

Great Performances

Barrymore

83-year-old stage and screen legend Christopher Plummer portrays another titan of theater and film from an earlier age, the illustrious — and notorious — John Barrymore. This acclaimed film adaptation of William Luce’s 1997 play is set in 1942 during the final months of Barrymore’s life as he recalls the highs and lows of his remarkable life and career.

Shakespeare Lost, Shakespeare Found

This is the fascinating story behind the bold 20-year project by world-renowned Shakespeare scholar Dr. Gary Taylor to recreate The History of Cardenio (1613), a lost work written by William Shakespeare and his early collaborator, John Fletcher. Culminates with the first full-scale production of the work at the Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis campus, where academics from around the world give their commentary.

1964  American Experience
It was the year of the Beatles and the Civil Rights Act; of the Gulf of Tonkin and Barry Goldwater’s presidential campaign; the year that cities across the country erupted in violence and Americans tried to make sense of the Kennedy assassination. This film follows the prominent figures of the time and ordinary Americans whose frustrations and ambitions turned the country onto a new and different course.
Tuesday, January 14 at 8 pm ET

Salinger  American Masters
This new profile is the first work to get beyond The Catcher in the Rye author’s meticulously built-up wall: his childhood, painstaking work methods, marriages, private world and the secrets he left behind after his death in 2010. Features interviews with J.D. Salinger’s friends, colleagues and members of his inner circle who have never spoken on the record before.
Tuesday, January 21 at 9 pm ET

Nature  The Funkiest Monkeys
Crested black macaques are beach bums with punk hairstyles, expressive faces, copper-colored eyes and some very unusual habits, making them some of the most charismatic of all monkeys. 25 years ago, filmmaker Colin Stafford-Johnson travelled to Indonesia and fell in love with these feisty monkeys. Now he returns to find out why their numbers have dropped.
