Time Scanners

With cutting-edge technology that can “read” buildings, ruins and landscapes from ancient worlds, this series reveals physical and forensic history, allowing viewers to reach out and touch the past. In the first episode, the team travels to Egypt to scan the pyramids to find out how the necropolis evolved from simple mud-brick structures to the most impressive buildings in the ancient world. Pictured: a scan of the the ancient desert city of Petra in Jordan.

The Buffalo King

James “Scotty” Philip, a pioneer South Dakota rancher, is often credited with saving the American Bison from extinction. Philip and his wife, a Native American, came to Dakota Territory in the late 1800s. He set out to save the buffalo from extinction by buying a small herd of 74 buffalo. By the time of his death in 1911, the buffalo herd had grown to more than 1,000 and they have been used to restock herds across the nation.

A Friend Indeed

The Bill Sackter Story

This is the inspiring true story of Bill Sackter, who left a lifetime of institutionalization to emerge as an international hero for people with disabilities. Actor Mickey Rooney portrayed his life in the 1981 made-for-tv movie “Bill”. Now get to know the real Bill Sackter, in Lane Wyrick’s highly entertaining and heartwarming feature-length documentary about friendship, faith, and the power of human compassion.

My Wild Affair

Hear extraordinary stories of the bonds between humans and their animal companions, including an orphaned baby elephant, an orangutan raised as a human child, a rhinoceros raised in suburbia and a harbor seal that entered the human world but remained wild at heart. The first of four parts tells the story of how the death of a baby elephant led to the rescue of more than 150 elephant orphans.

Separate and Unequal

Sixty years after the Supreme Court declared separate schools for black and white children unconstitutional, FRONTLINE examines the comeback of segregation in America. The film focuses on Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where a group of mostly white parents are trying to form their own city with its own separate school district, leaving behind a population of black students. Through the battle in Baton Rouge, FRONTLINE shows the growing racial divide in American schools and the legacy of Brown v. Board of Education.

Sex in the Wild

This four-part series, presented by anatomiast Joy Reidenberg and veterinarian Mark Evans, examines the reproductive behaviors and biology of four species — elephants, kangaroos, orangutans and dolphins — and takes an in-depth look at how these animals find and woo the opposite sex. It also explores how they mate, give birth and raise their young in extreme environments. This week, Joy and Mark travel to Africa to explore the unique reproduction challenges of the largest animal on land — the elephant.
